Dear Shareholder

Extension to Pro Rata Non Renounceable Rights Issue

This letter is to inform you that the Australian Stock Exchange Limited ("ASX") has granted Oropa Limited an extension to the Pro Rata Non Renounceable Rights Issue up until 5.00pm AWST, 3 February 2006.

The Company requested this extension to permit its shareholders additional time to subscribe for their entitlements under the offer as a result of recent material factors that have occurred, including an increase in the Company Share price (currently trading at 16.5 cents) as well as excellent results obtained from a recently completed trenching programme at the Sambung Prospect located south of the Sihayo 1 North gold deposit, details of which are to be found in the attached ASX announcement.

Under these circumstances Oropa's directors consider that the Company's shareholders should be afforded some additional time to make an informed decision on whether or not to take up their respective entitlements.

If you are not in possession of your Entitlement Forms and/or Shortfall Acceptance Form, please contact Security Transfer Registrars Pty Ltd (08 9315 2333) or this office and a form will be dispatched to you.

Yours faithfully
